

Oh what joy, oh what fun, the hunt for your Easter eggs has begun!

Quick, pick up the pace, head to the place where you can see your face!

You found a clue, now take a moment to think...

you'll find the next one where we keep the cool drink!

Keep those clues close, you're on the right path...

hurry along to the place where you bath!

This way or that, it's time to choose...

the next clue is hidden where you keep your shoes!

We're searching up and down,
we're looking high and low...

but have you checked where the dishes go?

We're getting so excited, we're making all the noise...

you'll find what you need by your favorite toys!

Another step closer, there's only a few more...

Hop, skip and jump to the front door!

A few more left, but don't make a peep...

you need to go to the place where you fall asleep...

This might be tricky so I'll give you a clue...

Where do all the dirty clothes go to?

Well done you, this is the very last one...

search by the plants and then you've won!
